CHILDREN’S MINISTRY

This month our kids are learning all about trust. We are explaining trust as putting your confidence in someone you can depend on. I LOVE our memory verse this month from Proverbs 3:5. "Trust in the Lord with all your heart. Do not depend on your own understanding." Our big idea this week is that we can trust God no matter what.

We are looking for fabulous subs for our Wed afternoon ministry. If you would like to be added to our sub list, please see Ms. Michelle for more info. We would love to have you on board with us serving in this wonderful ministry.

Our children's and youth ministry are now accepting donations for Candy Walk. Donation boxes will be in the education building in the children's ministry wing. This fun event takes place on Monday, October 28 from 4:30-6:30 behind the City Admin Building. Bring your kids and grand kids to our table to see us!

(Note: House of Holidays is an annual fundraiser that supports various community groups and our church)

I136 STUDENT MINISTRY

We all tend to push back on the people, places, and things that control and hold authority over us. But here’s the catch: whether we admit it or not, we’ve all given someone (or something) control of our lives. This month we will be challenged to consider who, or what, we’ve allowed to be our boss. Because whether it’s the god of me, the god of stuff, the god of worry, or the god of obsession, we all know what it’s like to have an authority problem and experience the end results of who, or what, we let lead us.

Remember the Spaghetti Fundraiser for our January worship/discipleship retreat is today in the Family Life Center right after the 10:30 a.m. service! Thank you for being a part of and blessing the student ministry with your time, great attitudes, and unique talents, and I, Jamie, can’t wait to serve others alongside you today!

Tonight from 5:30 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. in the Family Life Center come hang out, have some food, and be part of exciting games, conversations, and fun as we all grow closer towards God together!
